Question 1

Briefly answer the following:-

(a) Explain as to how and when the amendments made in Finance Bill, in respect of service tax matters come into force?

(b) Is service tax payable in respect of services provided in the Indian territorial waters?

Answer

(a) Amendments made by the Finance Bill, in respect of service tax matters, come into force from the date of enactment of the Finance Bill i.e., the date on which the Finance Bill receives the assent of the President of India. However, wherever it is specifically provided so in the Finance Bill, certain amendments become effective from a date to be notified after the enactment of the Finance Bill.

(b) Yes, services provided within Indian territorial waters are liable to service tax, as the levy of service tax extends to the whole of India except Jammu and Kashmir and India includes Indian territorial waters. Indian territorial waters extend upto 12 nautical miles from the Indian land mass.

Question 2

What are the sources of service tax law?

Answer

There is no independent statute on service tax as yet. However, the sources of service tax law are:-

(i) Finance Act, 1994
(ii) Rules on service tax
(iii) Notifications on service tax
(iv) Circulars or Office Letters (Instructions) on service tax
(v) Orders on service tax and
(vi) Trade notices on service tax
Question 3

State the provisions which enable the Central Government to make rules for administering service tax. For what purposes are such rules made? Name any four such rules issued by the Central Government so far.

Answer

Section 94 of Chapter V and section 96-I of Chapter VA of the Finance Act, 1944 grants power to Central Government to make rules for carrying out the provisions of these Chapters. Rules should be read with the statutory provisions contained in the Act. Rules can never override the Act and cannot be in conflict with the same.

So far, the Central Government has issued the following rules for administering service tax –

(a) Service Tax Rules, 1994
(b) Service Tax (Advance Ruling) Rules, 2003
(c) Point of Taxation Rules, 2011
(d) Place of Provision of Service Rules, 2012
(e) Service Tax (Registration of Special Category of Persons) Rules, 2005
(f) Service Tax (Determination of Value) Rules, 2006 and

Note: Any four rules may be mentioned.

Question 4

State with reasons in brief whether the following statement is correct or incorrect with reference to the provisions of service tax:

Service tax provisions are not applicable in Jammu and Kashmir because State Government concurrence was not obtained in respect of Finance Act, 1994.

Answer

The statement is correct. As per Article 370 of the Constitution, any Act of Parliament applies to Jammu and Kashmir only with the concurrence of the State Government. Since, no such concurrence has been obtained in respect of Finance Act, 1994, service tax provisions are not applicable in Jammu and Kashmir.

Question 5

Briefly explain about the charge of service tax.

Answer

Section 66B is the charging section of the Act, which provides that there shall be levied a tax at the rate of 12% on the value of all services, other than those services specified in the negative list, provided or agreed to be provided in the taxable territory by one person to another and collected in

According to Section 65B (44) the term "service", inter alia, means any activity carried out by a person for another for consideration. In this background, explain the meaning of monetary consideration as well as non-monetary consideration?

Answer

‘Monetary consideration’ means any consideration received in the form of money. According to Section 65B(33) “money” means legal tender, cheque, promissory note, bill of exchange, letter of credit, draft, pay order, traveller cheque, money order, postal or electronic remittance or any such similar instrument but shall not include any currency that is held for its numismatic value. On the other hand, ‘Non-monetary consideration’ essentially means compensation in kind. For instance:

- (A) Supply of goods and services in return for provision of service.
- (B) Refraining or forbearing to do an act in return for provision of service.
